Guidelines

- All items must be sold within space rented
- No cash raffles allowed
- Hillsboro Community Civic Club has contracted with certain vendors to sell times/raffles openly on fairgrounds
- Certain concessions are not permitted due to prior contractual obligations
- No vendor is guaranteed exclusive rights, however, we work to limit the number of concessionaires selling the same/similar products
- Food vendors are asked to remain open for two hours after the Rodeo
- You must list all types of display and/or products sold
- This application DOES NOT give you the right to sell or give away food products, water, drink of any kind - Any attempt to sell or give away unauthorized items will result in removal from the fairgrounds and forfeiture of funds deposited
- If you wish to be a food/drink vendor you must obtain a separate application
- No coolers or alcoholic beverages allowed on the fairgrounds
- The Rodeo Committee reserves the right to reject this application without explanation
- All fees and tickets are non-refundable
- Each exhibitor/vendor is solely responsible for their own property, exhibits, or merchandise
- No pets allowed
- Vendor/Exhibitors who break down and leave early will not be asked to attend next year's event
- Everyone who comes through the gate must have a ticket
